Ken continues his involvement with various aspects of the OSS materials. He talked on the telephone three times with John Sherwood, reporter for the Washington Times, whose article on the OSS papers at the National Archives appeared today. Ken talked with Geoffrey Jones, president of the Donovan Memorial Foundation and of the OSS Veterans Association, about an access request from one of the veterans. He also talked with Ed Boughton, secretary of the Donovan Memorial Foundation, in regard to Boughton's request for OSS films. Arrangements are being made for Boughton to review 35mm films as a first step prior to FOIA review. IMS and IPD are handling the case.

Ken forwarded to the State Department History Office, at their request, a CONFIDENTIAL print-out of previously released NIEs and SNIEs.

STAT Bob interviewed [ ] in Annapolis, Rolfe Kingsley in Haymarket, and [ ] at Headquarters. This completes his proposed set of interviews, except for James Angleton, who is proving elusive. STAT

Bob also attended a seminar at the Marine Corps History Center which featured an address by Assistant Secretary of Defense James Webb.

Diane has put in requests for two two-day OTE courses later this summer. She is nearing the end of her project of entering the History Staff's [ ] holdings into the Agency's computerized system. Only one batch of boxes remains to be processed, plus another batch which we are still holding while CRD determines whether some covering letters included in it can be downgraded from TOP SECRET. STAT

Diane has received back from the DDI RMO a large group of documents from the group the State Department historians requested from the Kennedy Library. She is now processing these. Only seven documents from this request are still out-standing.

Arrangements have been made for Don to assist OSO/SAD in putting out its bi-weekly newsletter. As requested by [ ] C/SAD, Don will work there one day to prepare each publication. This is something Don had done prior to coming to the History Staff. STAT
